ADA HIGH SCHOOL SONG

To Ada Hi our own school
We raise our song today
We praise thee now we serve thee
In all our work and play.
Our colors always flying,
We'll keep them ever upon high
To Ada Hi, our own school
We'll praise thee to the sky
For high school halls and high school walls
We love thee best of all.

For Ada Hi our own school
We'll always fight to win
We do our best to beat them
Where'ere we enter in.
Our players slways fighting
For victories they do their best
For Ada Hi, our own school
We'll always stand the test.
For high school ways and high school days
We love thee best of all.

SUMMARY

The "Bulldogs," with their ranks slightly dented by the graduation of eight lettermen, returned this year with high spirits and a will to play ball.

The season opened on the gridiron of Wapak. It was here the "Bulldogs" showed the stuff they were made of. Only after a bitter fight did the "Bulldogs" go down to a 12-7 defeat.

For the first home game of the season Ada played host to a rival Upper Sandusky team. The battling Bulldogs proved no match for the strong Upper Sandusky eleven and bowed out 27-0.

Ada then staged a mild come back by playing Delphos Jefferson to a 6-6 tie.

The always fighting Bulldogs returned the next week to play a superior Carey team with a resulting score of 21-0.

In the big game of the year with our county rivals Kenton, the Bulldogs reached a midseason form. Through this spectacular game the "Bulldogs" emerged victorious over the "Wildcats" score 6-0.

At the last game of the year the Bulldogs were still giving everything they had but the overpowering Forest team claimed the victory 19-6.

By winning two games, tying one and losing five the Bulldogs can not claim what is called a "successful season." Even though they came out on the short end of the score five times, in most cases it was because they wer outclassed and not because they didn't play as hard as they could.

The graduating seniors of the football team of "45": P. Bosse, D. Irwin, W. Fisher, C. Conley, J. Dally, G. Deringer, P. Volckening, G. Gilbert, R. Murray, N. Amey, J. Elliott, and B. Gobin, wish the in coming team the best of luck.

TOURNAMENT

At the opening of the basketball season this year only two lettermen headed the list of players--Niles Amey and Phil Bosse.

The first two games of the season were won with comparative ease. In the following four games the "Bulldogs," though defeated, gradually molded themselves into a combination that could work together to win games. These five were: Bosse and Volkening as forwards, Kreglow and Banks as guards, and Amey as center. Elliott in the sixth man position was an able substitute for any of the first five. This winning combination topped the next six teams with heavy scores. In the last three games of the season the boys gave way to slightly stronger teams.

The "Bulldogs" entered the tournament with high hopes and a good chance to come out on top. Although the Ada five played five games in the tournament, they were beaten by Hicksville and dropped consolation game to Wapak St, Joseph.

Among the promising members of the reserve squad are Jim Gobin, Dave Sousley, Bob Daft, Arthur Amey, Jack Schindler, and Dean Klinger. The out-going seniors are: Niles Amey, Phil Bosse, Jim Banks, John Elliott, and Paul Volckening.

Clyde Lamb as coach of the football and basketball teams has been both coach and "pal" to all associated with him. We wish him luck.

GIRLS ATHLETIC ASSOCIATION

The G. A. A..year was opened by a scavenger hunt and potluck supper in the school dining room. Other social events of the year were a chili-supper, exchange programs with Bluffton G. A. A., a bobby-sox dance, a box supper and valentine dance, play-night with Mount Cory High School girls, minor sports night at Taft Gymnasium and senior farewell banquet.

During the year the girls had noon tournaments in the gymnasium of kickball, basketball, volleyball, deck tennins, and softball. The juniors made a "big sweep" by winning all except deck tennis in which the seniors were victorious. One of the most interesting tournaments proved to be a basketball tournament headed by Ruby's Rockets, Romick's Rompers, Creps's Champions, and Main Mighties. The Champions won, starring that tall junior, Loretta Darnell.

The point system was changed this year and each girl must have 600 points for a letter and 1000 points for a gold pin, the highest award. Several letters were awarded at the senior farewell banquet and the following girls received pins:

Lola Mae Van Atta, Willa Creps, Joan Main, Betty Romick, Betty Stair, Ruby Thompson, Agnes LaRue, and Kathleen Dearth.

During one of our home basketball games, twenty G. A. A. girls put on a volleyball exhibition game for the sixth graders. Girls also received points by selling at basketball and football games and the tournament.

Our club was under the supervision of Lola Mae Van Atta, president; Joyce Moore, vice president; Ruby Thompson, secretary, Evelyn Doringer, treasurer; Betty Stair and Betty Romick, intramural managers and Mrs. Omler, advisor.

CHEERLEADERS

Again we are very proud to have three very active G. A. A. members as our cheerleaders, namely: Joan Main, Betty Stair, and Willa Creps. As reserve cheerleaders, Marjory Scott, Doris Clum, and Ann Michael made their appearance at each game.

The Purple and Gold, official news voice of Ada High School, is published every month of the school year as a result of the combined efforts of Miss Buehler, the editorial staff, and the printing club.

Ten issues of the 1945-1946 Purple and Gold were published, including the two special issues--the first one in the second week of school, and the last one a big senior issue.

The aim of the newspaper staff was to bring the most news to the most students in the most interesting manner in the least time. Numerous pictures of students active in school affairs were printed to make the paper more attractive and more interesting to more people.

The printing class, who, without the aid of a regular instructor nevertheless printed ten issues of the paper, included Richard Irwin, Gene Gilbert, Lowell Umphress, and Harmon Binkley.

Tournaments, music, the drama, feature - haven't modern techniques arisen from these? Many of our present day activities are survivals of events of medieval times.

A double-padded cover, richly sub-tinted in gold is another new feature of the "46" "We."

Altogether, we have tried to improve - we hope you like it.

The Student Council is composed of twelve representatives elected by the student body for the purpose of bringing a richer relationship between the students and the faculty. There are four seniors, three juniors, two sophomores, one freshman, and one each from the seventh and eighth grades.

The council started its 1945-46 work by promoting the sale of an activity ticket. This lessened the cost of games, plays, parties and assemblies for each individual who purchased a ticket. In the second semester a magazine campaign was sponsored by the council, which enabled them to buy a new "Recordio" for use in music classes and school parties. The groupalso sponsored the annual interclass contest and banquet.

The council is divided into three permanent committees, who function throughout the year. The social committee, composed of three members and class representatives, has supervised two senior high parties, two junior high parties, and one combined "all school" party. The assembly committee plans assemblies for the entire year. This has three council members and the vice presidents of the classes. The monitors keep the halls orderly and safe during classes and between periods.

GIRL RESERVES

President: Jean Main
Vice President: Peggy Main
Secretary: Joyce Moore
Treasurer: Alice Clark

Sponsors
Miss Crawford; Miss Archibald

As Girl Reserves we try to be Gracious in manner, Impartial in judgment, Ready for service, Loyal to friends, Reaching toward the best, Earnest in purpose, Seeing the beautiful, Eager for knowledge, Reverent to God, Victorious over self, Ever dependable, Sincere at all times.

There are forty-two juniors and seniors in the Girl Reserve club of 1946. Each girl belongs to one of the five different committees of this club: social, music, devotional, service, or program.

Among some of the projects undertaken by the Girl Reserves were their contributions to the Red Cross and World Fellowship Fund, a pot-luck in honor of their mothers, and the week-day Easter services which were planned through the co-operation of the Hi-Y and Girl Reserves.

The Girl Reserves as a branch of the Young Women's Christian Association try to follow the high ideals of this world-wide organization.

HI-Y

Purpose: To create, maintain, and extend throughout the school and community high standards of Christian character.

Platform: Clean speech, clean sports, clean scholarship, and clean living.

President: Niles Amey
Vice President: Paul Volckening
Secretary-Treasurer: Chester Neff
Program chairman: Robert Gobin

Sponsor
Mr. Arthur Pfeil

The organization of the Hi-Y,a division of the Young Mens' Christian Association, was primarily organized to set an example for the younger generation and to take the initiative in various projects and reforms about the school and community.

Parties, playnights, pot-luck dinners, and joint G. R.-Hi-Y devotional services for Easter Week are among the many activities in which the Hi-Y is engaged.

During the forty-five minute period allotted the club each Thursday, a succession of debates, speakers, movies, local entertainment and musical appreciation ensues.

With the highest enrollment record for a number of years, the "46" Hi-Y organization has completed a most successful term.

F. H. A.

"Toward New Horizons"

The purposes of this organization are:

1. To promote a growing appreciation of the joys and satisfaction of homemaking.
2. To emphasize the importance of worthy home membership.
3. To encourage democracy in home and community life.
4. To work for good home and family life for all.
5. To promote international good will.
6. To foster the development of creative leadership in home and community life.
7. To provide wholesome individual and group recreation.
8. To further interest in home economics.

Officers of the club are:

President:	Helen Huber	Historian:	Ina Mae Fender
Vice President:	Marjorie Scott	Social Chairman:	Lola Van Atta
Secretary:	Ruby Thompson	Adviser:	Miss Ruth Huber
Treasurer:	Marcia Marshall

This year's club is composed of twenty-six members who proudly wear the new octagonal pin of the new national Future Home Makers of America. The club has been busy serving banquets, enjoying parties, attending organization meetings, improving the department, and working on self-improvement programs.

Highlights of the year have been the Christmas party, a joint F.H. A.-F.F.A. party, joint meetings with Dola, attending the regional and state meetings and the Mother-Daughter Banquet.

F. F. A.

The "Future Farmers of America" is a national organization of boys studying agriculture. The primary aim of the organization is the development of agricultural leadership, cooperation, and citizenship. The motto is "Learning to do, doing to learn, earning to live, living to serve."

The F. F. A. has four major degrees: "Greenhand; Future Farmer; State Farmer; and American Farmer." The degree of American Farmer is extremely difficult to attain and is a real goal for any boy to look forward to.

Officers of the club are:

President:	George Deringer	Reporter:	James Kreglow
Vice President:	Urban Long	Sentinel:	Warren Fisher
Treasurer:	Paul Van Atta	Adviser:	Mr. J. J. Kreglow

The club has two meetings every month. At our last meeting in March, The Future Farmer degree was given five sophomores: Paul Van Atta, Karl Spar, Charles Ballinger, John Neubert, and Frank Wince.

INTERCLASS CONTEST

The traditional Interclass Contest was held on April 5 in the High school auditorium. Each class-seniors, juniors, and sophomores-put up a good fight for the cup and the losers took the defeat in good spirit. The following participated and helped to make the evening a success.

Essay--Betty Blank, sophomore
Neil Davis, junior
Chester Neff, senior

Short Story--Jean Snyder, sophomore
Gloria Welsh, junior
Dorothy Rodgers, senior

Oration--Sara Dobbins, sophomore
Robert Hubbell, junior
Robert Gobin, senior

Reading--Shirley Hindall, sophomore
Ruby Baughman, junior
Lucretia Johnson, senior

The seniors were victorious over the other classes by taking top honors in the essay and short story. The sophomores won the oration and reading. The seniors also won the stunt contest which followed.

INTERCLASS BANQUET

On Saturday night, April 6 in the high school cafeteria, the Interclass Banquet was held to honor the contest winner.

In the midst of the meal the seniors all drank from the cup and so found a new use for it. A very interesting program followed the delightful dinner. Those taking part in the program were: Bob Gobin, Niles Amey, Janice Howbert, Shirley Main, Urban Long, Bonnie Huffman, Bob Dilts, Jean Main, Joe Baughman, Mrs. Omler and Mr. Pfeil. Mrs. Omler surprised the group when she played a very clever jungle trick on the seniors.

SCHOLARSHIP TEAM

On Saturday morning, May 11, the two students chosen by the respective teachers in each subject competed with students from eighteen schools in the annual district state scholarship test. The subjects included biology, algebra, plane geometry, American history, world history, social problems, English, and Latin.

SENIOR PLAY

DIRECTOR

MR DANFORD

CAST

SENIOR PLAY

The play presented on May 2nd and 3rd by the graduating class of "46" was the only comedy to win the Pulitzer Prize. This prize was awarded for the outstanding dramatic achievement of the year. "You Can't Take It With You" is the Type of play that will keep you in stitches laughing and at the same time slip in some good sound philosophy.

The large play cast this year consisted of twenty-one members, who in the order of their appearance, are as follows: Mrs. Sycamore, Lucretia Johnson; Essie, Jean Main; Rheba, Alice Anspach, Agnes La Rue; Mr. Sycamore, Niles Amey; Mr. De Pinna, Philip Bosse; Ed, Robert Gobin; Donald, Jack Daily; Grandpa, Chester Neff; Alice, Betty Stair; Henderson, Warren Fisher; Tony Kirby, Paul Volckening; Mr. Kolenkhov, James Banks; Miss Wellington, Patty Bice, Virginia Schrauth; Mr. Kirby, John Elliott; Mrs. Kirby, Ruby Thompson; G-Men, James Carmean, Gene Gilbert, Richard Irwin.

First Act

In the First act the Sycamore family is introduced. In their household everyone does exactly what they want to. Mrs. Sycamore writes plays, Mr. Sycamore and Mr. De Pinna make fireworks in the basement. Essie does ballet dancing and makes candy in her spare time. Ed plays the trombone and prints.

Alice Sycamore announces to her family that she has been going with Tony Kirby (her boss's son) and that she has invited the family to dinner for the following evening.

Second Act

Later that same evening the Kirbys arrive. Mr. and Mrs. Kirby are in the wealthy social circle and inclined to be a little snobbish. Because of their early arrival the Kirbys find the Sycamores unprepared to receive them. In this way they get a true picture of Alice's family--a noisy, carefree group. After a series of misunderstandings, the Kirbys prepare to leave. They are met at the door by G-Men, who put them all under arrest because of some printed material Ed has unwillingly made. The act closes as the fireworks in the basement blow up.

Third Act

The next day when the family has explained everything to the G-men, they are released along with Mr. and Mrs. Kirby who were quite below their dignity in a jail cell.

Alice is much disappointed because she and her family have not made a good impression on the Kirbys. She therefore gives up all hope of marrying Tony. He, however, is very insistent that Alice should marry him regardless of what has happened.

Mr. Kirby arrives to take Tony home and in the course of events Grandpa persuades him that their way of life is not so bad after all. Tony and Alice receive Mrs. Kirbys blessing and the play ends happily.

BY JUPITER

The Junior Class Play, written by Julia Thompson, is a unique story which ran on Broadway for two years as a very popular stage show.

The story of the play deals with the legendary Amazons, the labors of Hercules, and the Trojan War. There is a side glance at a love story between the two leads, "Theseus" a Greek warrior, and the Amazonian Princess, "Antiope."

The story takes place in an Amazonian Queendom where the women do the fighting and ruling while the men are just a domestic convenience. To their land comes an army of Greek warriors, sight seeing on their way to seize Troy and lend a hand to half-wit Hercules. The latter promised Homer, his publicity man, to steal the sacred girdle of the Amazon's queen, Hippolyta. The warriors call a truce for the night and in the morning are the best of friends.

With his expert kisses, more than his sword and shield, Theseus is winning over the princess.

The climax comes when Sapiens, Hippolyta's effeminate young husband, is drafted into the army. Meanwhile the Greeks leave the Amazons and Theseus takes Antiope back to Greece as his wife.

Along with love comes humor and music which also adds to the merriment and adventure.

The cast included the entire class but is featured in order of their appearance:

Gloria Wolsh as 1st Sergeant; Joyce Moore as Buria; Marjory Scott as 2nd Sergeant; Peggy Main as 1st Sentry; Lenore Lindahl as 2nd sentry; Ina May Fender as 3rd Sentry; Doris Abbott as Cuusica; Bonnie Huffman a Heroica; Margery Zehner as Pomposia; mother of Sapiens; Lorotta Darnell as Hippolyta, Queen of the Amazons; Urban Long as Sapiens, the Queen's husband; Ruby Baughman as Antiope, the Princess; Wilma Shadley as Captain of the Archers; Arthur Amey as Theseus, a Greek warrior and sweetheart of Antiope; Clyde High as Homer; Betty Tinsler as The Runner; Bob Allen as Hercules; Neil Davis as Gaganius; Bob Dilts as Achilles; and Bob Hubbell as Ajax.

VOCAL DEPARTMENT

The Vocal Department of Ada High School is under the direction of Miss Betty Fravel and is made up of three major divisions,--a Mixed Chorus of Forty-five members, a Girls' Choir of forty members, and a Freshman Chorus of thirty voices. In addition to these organizations there is a Girls' Ensemble. The students who participate in the first two organizations named are taken from the three upper classes--Sophomore, Junior, and Senior.

During the past year the Mixed Chorus participated in many programs, a few of which were--Farmers' Institute, Joint Band and Chorus Concert, District Contest at Bluffton, and Baccalaureate Service.

The highlight of the year was "Auditorium Session" in which both band and choir participated. In addition to the cantata "The Legend of Sleepy Hollow" with Loretta Darnell as soloist the choir sang three numbers which were as follows:

The Heavens Are Telling-Haydn
Listen to the Lambs-Dett Nash
What of the Night-Thompson

This choir also went to the district contest at Bluffton on April 27 at which time they sang "If With All Your Hearts Ye Truly Seek Me" by Mendelssohn and "Bluebirds" by Leontovick.

The officers of this group are:

President-Niles Amey
Vice President-Gloria Welsh
Secretary-Treasurer-Loretta Darnell
Accompanist-Neil Davis

The Girls' Choir also entered the contest at Bluffton and presented as their numbers "The Lord Bless You and Keep You" by Lutkin and "All Glory, Laud, and Honor" by Teschnercain.

The Girls' Ensemble, made up of junior and senior girls,has played an important part in the music activities of the past year. At the Bowling Green contest on April 13 both the ensemble and soloists- Jean Main and Loretta Darnell-received excellent ratings.

BAND

Under the skillful direction of Kelly Danford the Ada High School Band has reached a high goal. It has proved its ability by participating in several functions of the school year, among first of which was the entertainment of the school and its guests during Farmers' Institute.

The outstanding achievement of the band this year was the choral-band concert "Auditorium Session." Some of the compositions are as follows:

Stout-Hearted Men . . . . . Romberg
I Love A Parade . . . . . Arlan
The Traveller . . . . . Buchtel
American Patrol . . . . . Meachem
Oriental Suite . . . . . Gibb
A. Kurdish Fire Dance
B. Shadows of the Mosque
C. The Jugglers
D. Festival at Basra
Auditorium Session . . . . . Moffitt
Showboat . . . . . Kern
A. Cotton Blossom
B. Make Believe
C. Ol' Man River
D. Can't Help Lovin' That Man Of Mine
E. Reprise of Ol' Man River
Open Then The Door. . . . . Danford

For the first time in several years a district instrumental and; vocal contest was held at Bluffton College. Our band participated by the playing of "Mantilla Overture" and "The Traveler." This completed the public appearances for the Ada High School Band of 1945-46.

ORCHESTRA

The orchestra under Mr. Danford's supervision has done well this year but has not made as many public appearances. It has gained several needed string and clarinet instruments and thus greatly improved its volume and tone quality.

Among its activities was the appearance in commencement exercises in May. At this time two numbers were played. "Pavanne" by Gould and "Andante from Surprise Symphony" by Haydn.

A string ensemble of twenty-one students worked on Shubert's "Quartet," "Rosamund Overture" and Tschaikowsky's "Theme from the Sixth Symphony."

Seventh And Eighth Grade Memories

Remember when:

Delzie Johnson went with Russel Moore?
Leo Motter first got his horse?
Gerry O'Brien came to Ada High?
Don Gobin had a crush on Kathryn Leslie?
Charles Zink impersonated Frank Sinatra, in assembly
Bob Cross shaved off his eyebrows?
Pat Anspach was carrying the torch for Bob Gobin?
Bob Cole moved to the country?
Joyce Smith went on the Girl Scout hayride? Some fun?
Esther Stager tried to teach some eighth graders to dance?
Beryl Lindahl had her party?
John Marshall wasn't bashful?
Jill Bryant came to Ada High?
Ray Touvell didn't have gum in music class?
Joe Baughman gave the reading, "It Was I"?
Joan Wright forfeited her bracelet to Karl Spar?
Paul Castle moved out on the Main farm?
Ronny Moore went to sharpen his pencil and discovered he didn't have his pencil?
Bernice Hurley winked at Chet Neff in the library?
Shirley Main sang, "Onesy-Twosy," in assembly, and the senior boys swooned?
David Peper had a laughing spell in English class?
Carolyn Blank and Andy Parr had those Sunday afternoons for taking pictures?
Keith Stober raised pigeons?
Shirley Young didn't break something at a party?
Joe Bishop forgot to take off his galoshes?
Maurice Murray wasn't a wolf?
Betty Klingler had her eyes on Jim Kreglow?
Jim Pifer imitated Miss Fravel in music class?
Vernetta Reed drew some swell pictures for open house?
Ilene Dearth loaned her comb to Jobie Creps every morning?
Joan Long had Karl Spar's Hi-Y pin?
The seventh grade girls swooned when Niles Amey was their homeroom teacher?
A group of eighth graders almost froze to death at a party, because George Parshall forgot to build a fire?

ODE to the SENIORS
by
Willa Creps and Chester Neff

O' Seniors we are, and we longingly gaze
At azure horizons; our youth being drawn
To fire the great world with ambition and song,
And try to renew what has weakened and gone.

Through the long centuries from medieval ages
What thoughts have arisen to your mind and ours
Concerning the heritage coming as in showers
From long-dead ancestors and eternal sages?

O' that the coming age will have done as well
Toward leaving to earth culture eternal
As our forbearers have enlightened the ages
By their undying wisdom, philosophy's immortal.

So have we entered, so shall we leave our experience
Which then becomes memory--bitter and sweet.
Let us remember those memories, for life's street
Will be enriched by memories' essence.

O' Seniors we were and are now prepared
To face the temptations and uncertainty of life
To the fullest extent that we overcome strife
And can pit our will against fate and be spared.

So when we embark on life's voyage we must think
Of Him who helped us as sheep in the fold.
Let us come unto Him and let us behold
The blessed message which the Master brings.

Then as some of the mysteries of life unfold
We wait with anticipating joy for the morrow;
Always impatient until age and thought o'er takes
Us on the path we follow for knowledge and gold.

So as in youth we seek the glowing and wondrous star
Sparkling like a fiery diamond on draped velvet
We are now ready to reach yon shining star
O'er the broad and pure highway heralding success.

WILL

As the Seniors of Ada High School go out into the big bad world they leave their prized high school possessions to the under class men and women as follows:

To Miss Smith, our tolerant sponsor, and homeroom teacher we leave the fond hope that she will choose a better class for next year.

Jim Banks leaves his address book to anyone with a car and a will to travel.

Paul Volckening leaves his hot trumpet to Clair McCurdy. (Keep it warm Clair).

Chester Neff leaves his acting ability to anyone who has trouble getting assignments.

John Elliott leaves his brother, Charles, the task of furnishing records for high school parties.

Agnes LaRue leaves her southern accent acquired in the senior play to Margie Zehner.

Warren Fisher leaves his arguments in Social Problems class to someone who is less of a social problem.

June Parr leaves her height to Beryl Lindahl.

Miriam Willeke leaves the office twice a day to go to the mail box.

Lucretia Johnson leaves her red hair and freckles to Ruth Ann McMillen.

Philip Bosse-Technical Phil leaves his technicalities to someone who isn't very technical, (we just found this in the dictionary).

Dorothy Rodgers leaves her various high school tasks to Maurice Klingler.

Ruby-Jo Creps leaves one of her many boy friends to Betty Tinsler.

Eugene Gilbert isn't going to leave Loretta to anyone, if he can help it.

Betty Romick leaves her quiet personality to Bob Hubbell, make use of it, Bob.

Betty Stair leaves her choir antics to anyone who can sing a chorus of America and be telling the latest gossip at the same time.

Helen Huber leaves her recipe for boiling water to Joan Hays.

Alice Clark wills her store house of knowledge to Bob Allen. (Good luck, Bob).

Wilma Langenberg leaves her drum sticks to Ned Benham.

Margaret O'Brien leaves her golden blond hair to Jane Gilbert.

Virginia Schrauth wills her saxophone, also a stand, to hold it up, to Edith Henry.

James Carmean leaves his sharp wit and his bag of tricks to Art Amey.

Cynthia Wince leaves music appreciation with no regrets.

Lola Mae Van Atta leaves her vim and "vigger" to Sara Dobbins.

Alice Anspach leaves her intelligent questions to Jean Snyder.

Jack Dally wills his gift of gab to Jackie Lamb.

George Deringer leaves Ada High for Ohio State.

Ruby Thompson leaves her talent at the typewriter to Vera Morris.

Willa Creps wills her everlasting stamina to Doris Abbott.

Charles Conley bequeaths his ability to get around on a basketball court to Leater Kindle.

Joyce Underwood, the secretary, wills all the unpaid bills of this year's senior class to the senior class of next year.

Jean Main, the softball dynamo, wills her powerful pitching arm and beautiful form to Gloria Welsh.

Pearl Gossard leaves home economics class hoping that some daring young freshman gilr will finish the dress she has been working on for the last year.

Patty Bice leaves her stop watch to anybody that can make it from home to school in three seconds flat.

Kathleen Dearth leaves her ability to get along with the underclassmen to Margie Scott.

Mark McPheron leaves his innumberable stories to Jim Marshall.

Roger Murray the Texan, leaves his boots and saddles to Neal Davis (along with a can of glue).

Richard Irwin leaves his fluctuating romances and road map to Clyde High.

Now that all this is said and done, Bob Gobin and Niles Amey will leave Ada High as quietly as possible.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto subscribed our names and would affix a seal if we had one, on this twenty eight day of May in the year of Nineteen hundred and forty-six.

PROPHECY
Richard Irwin and Jean Main

The various members of the Senior Class soon will be going their separate ways and living in different parts of the world they will not be able to follow the progress of their fellow classmates. We, Richard Irwin and Jean Main, Prophets of Ada High School, have decided to let you all take a glimpse into the future of our famous Class of "46."

Now what have we here---the vision is getting clearer---It is---- Well---what do you know----ROGER MURRAY has become a commander in the United States Navy and, as other sailors, has a girl in every port.

MARK McPHERON after reading Charles Atlas' books has taken the title of "The World's Most Perfectly Developed Man."

JAMES BANKS after his many escapades has finally withdrawn to the hills of Tennessee, where he will reside forever as a bachelor.

We see a handsome doctor and a cute little nurse in the Ada Memorial Hospital--OH! and that is not a cat BOB GOBIN and ALICE ANSPACH are cutting up.

We see PHILIP BOSSE as head spark-plug tester at Wall's Wrecker Service.

PATTY BICE, the great would-be-psychologist, is now trying her methods of psychology on her five children.

CHESTER NEFF, the cartoonist, is drawing a comic strip called "Gravel Gertie vs. Flattop" for the Ada Herald.

PEARL GOSSARD and JUNE PARR are chief cooks in Childe's Restaurant in Times Square, New York.

JACK DALLY can be seen hitching the horses and chasing his many children from the barn.

CHARLES CONLEY is seen slowly drifting down Hog Creek trolling for trout.

ALICE CLARK, JOBIE CREPS, and CYNTHIA WINCE can be seen as old faithful grade school teachers--and what they are learning from the kids.

Now we take a look on the ship USS Waterlogg and what do we see but "Swabbie" CARMEAN swabbing the poop deck.

WARREN FISHER has just finished a series of pamphlets for the government on "How To Raise Pigs."

NILES AMEY, the well-known coach of Notre Dame is retiring to coach a football team composed of his eleven children.

GEORGE DERINGER has just been appointed head of the Soil Conservation Program.

RUBY THOMPSON finds it hard to take dictation and sit on the boss's lap at the same time.

Going past Van's Beauty Salon we see LOLA VAN ATTA slapping a mud pack on the local society woman, HELEN HUBER.

Ten years from now we see JOHN ELLIOTT looking over vocation books still trying to decide his vocation.

JOYCE UNDERWOOD is singing for the Metropolitan Opera. Her most famous number is Figero.

We see the highly domesticated RED JOHNSON doing her Tuesday's wash while Tom, Dick, and Junior are running around the tub.

PAUL VOLCKENING is seen playing his cornet with Duke Ellington's band. He has the distinction of being the only white man in the band.

MARGARET O'BRIEN is signed up with a woman's baseball team in Bordertown, New Jersey. While baseballs are hard to get and husbands are easy--she uses them for practice.

We see MIRIAM DEARTH WILLEKE watching Orland doing the supper dishes. Then---we see him watching her do the chores.

GENE GILBERT in his high school days was always chasing a tall blonde-now that same blonde is chasing Gene. (With a broom)

Now as we take a brisk walk down the street-----what do we see but DOROTHY RODGERS, the only lady congress woman to be impeached, selling violets on the corner of Hollywood and Vine.

WILMA LANGENBERG is the official gum tester for Fleers Tripple-Mint Chewing Gum Company.

AGNES LA RUE and KATE DEARTH can both be seen as the perfect American housewives. Incidently, Agnes learned quite a bit of household tasks in the senior play where she appeared as Rheba.

BETTY STAIR and WIDDIE CREPS are really old salts now, being on life guard duty at the Great Salt Lake in Utah.

JEAN MAIN, owner of the Broken Dude Ranch in Southern California, has just gone out to the corral to see which is being broken the horse or the man--ah--and look closer--who is the man but that "Ever trying to break a bronc"--DICK IRWIN.

In a Babylonian Drug Store we see GEDIE SCHRAUTH filling out a prescription for Lumbago Arthorito.

BETTY ROMICK, the great nurse, is now known as Florence Nightingale II of the Coconut Hospital located two miles east of the equator.

MISS SMITH, after retiring and making a fortune at dear old A. H. S., is a resident in a rich Chicago suburb.

Now that you have seen into the future of the class you will know where to contact them, if you ever so desire.

CLASS HISTORY FOR CLASS OF 1946

Tonight there sits before you one of the greatest classes ever to graduate from Ada High. Out of this class, eleven of the present thirty-nine students started their school days at the south building fourteen at the north building--and nineteen of that same twenty-five have completed their entire school career in good old Ada. Six that started back there in 1934 later came back to graduate with us. Miss Gallant and Miss Wehe "with a bang" started us off towards the goal of graduation which we have attained. In the second grade Miss Reese and Miss Whitworth taught us some of the things a second grader ought to know. In the third grade, Miss Kelly and Miss McBride taught us not to tease the younger boys and girls by means of cracking of hands with a yard stick. In the fourth grade Miss Rundell and Mrs. Tallman took over and tried to teach us just how multiplication and division was SUPPOSED to be done. During this year the "spelling bee" between the north and south buildings proved to be the cause of loads of excitement. In 1938 we were pretty well grown up--we thought--getting to go upstairs and use Miss Wagner's and Miss McWilliams' rooms. During our fifth grade we were taught how to get out of the building in case of a fire--down those strips of iron, better known as fire escapes. At the beginning of the year, the two buildings were united into one fifth grade. At first this caused a lot of rivalry. In the sixth grade we were really growing up fast. Now each class was given the opportunity to change class rooms instead of the teachers doing the changing. Mr. Miller and Mrs. Underwood were our home room teachers. We can all remember how Mrs. Underwood gave true and false tests and all the answers were true and how Mr. Miller taught us how to make snow forts and play baseball. On rainy days we could go into the auditorium and play checkers, dominoes, and so forth. Near the end of the school year we were invited by the seventh graders over to the high school building to visit for a WHOLE day. We were bewildered by all the various bells and even more surprised at the noise and confusion when the classes moved. Our sixth grade graduation exercise was the greatest event we had known. We all had new clothes and spoke our pieces just so.

From the sixth grade, fifty lost and exceedingly stupid kids came stringing out to "the old brain factory," better known as Ada High School, where they began their notorious careers. Many of the high school teachers thought it was a useless attempt to keep such fugitives from "the house of correction" under control--but look at us now, the greatest class ever to graduate from this great school. During this seventh year we had as able sponsors Miss Baum and Miss McDonald.

Under the sponsorship of Mr. Hoops and the ever-faithful Mrs. Hawk, we managed the eighth grade. Most of the year was spent in preparation for the eighth grade tests which came in April. Dorothy Rodgers, of course, led the group as she has through her entire school years. For our eighth grade assembly we gave a short play from Shakespeare.

Fifty-one students began their high school life under the leadership of Robert Gobin as president and Mr. Zimmer, class Sponsor. To swell our ranks, Roger Murray and Niles Amey joined our class. Our boys were allowed to participate in a few sports, as were our girls permitted to join the G. A. A. We were also honored by attending the high school parties.

In the sophomore year we were honored by having the big study hall for our home room and Mr. Roy Iams as our sponsor. Jean Main reigned over the class as president. We are now taking our place in the Interclass Contest for the first time. Dorothy Rodgers, Chester Neff, Patty Bice and Miriam Dearth (Willeke) represented us and brought us to victory. Our original stunt also won top honors, and so the great sophomore class ruled the Spanish Banquet on the following night. During this year Chester Neff and Lucretia Johnson joined us. Our boys were members of the Hi-Y and our girls were taken into the G. R. for the next year. The F. H. A. and F. F. A. also attracted a number of our group. The foothall and basketball squads showed that there were a good many Sophomores interested in sports.

Under the leadership of Paul Volckening and sponsorship of Miss Edna Buehler, we started the many tasks that confront a struggling junior. This year was one of great excitement as we thought of producing a class plan and sponsoring a banquet and prom for the seniors of that year. "Best Foot Forward" was selected for our debut in acting--and what a debut--by POPULAR demand we presented our play the second time. Class assignments were forgotton and we later thought about the junior-senior prom. The gymnasium was cleverly decorated with the theme of "The River of the Roses" being used throughout all designs. We had a real river and bushels and bushels of roses. The interclass contest is nothing to speak of as we lost, but nevertheless our contestants put a lot of time and effort on their projects. Dorothy Rodgers, Chester Neff, Patty Bice and Miriam Dearth (Willeke) represented us again this year. The stunt was our shining point, however, as we took it for our second year.

To perfect the perfect, the class of '46 undertook their senior year with an enthusiasm which has never before echoed down the halls of Ada High School. With practically all the boys represented on the football squad, six on the basketball squad and baseball was once again started--you can see that sports were one of the greates highlights of the entire year. INCIDENTALLY, the seniors won the interclass contest for the second time, and the stunt for the third consecutive year. Dorothy Rodgers, Chester Neff, Lucretia Johnson, and Robert Gobin Represented us, As the year drew to a close the class was very sorry to lose one of its classmates, Roger Murray, to the U. S. Navy. However, here's the best of luck to you and navy blues, Roger. For the senior play, we produced the three act comedy entitled "You Can t Take It With You" which proved to be a very great success. The only new recruit added to our ranks this year was the one and only Mark Anthony McPheron. We were honor guests later in the year, at the annual junior-senior banquet and prom. We had a grand evening and wish to express our gratitude to the junior class for all their efforts and co-operation with Miss Huber in planning this gala affair.

Piloted by Niles Amey as president, Robert Gobin as vice-president, Joyce Underwood as secretary, Richard Irwin as treasurer and under the sponsorship of Miss Evelyn Smith, we completed the senior year safe and sound and present ourselves for your approval.

Now with sad hearts we say goodbye to Ada High and start along life's way. We thank you for the greatest days of our lives. May we soon reach our goal of success and look back and say that Ada High was really our foundation--and a good one too.

THANKS A MILLION FOR THE MEMORIES AND GOOD LUCK TO THE REST OF YOU.

Signed and sealed by

Mrs. Miriam Willeke

James Oliver Banks

APPRECIATION

We want to express a sincere appreciation to all those groups who, in combined effort, have made the 1946 "We" an actuality.

To Miss Smith and her typists we are greatly indebted for all the mimeograph work found in these pages.....

To the Green Studio for our senior and group pictures.....

To Mr. Lamb for his sports and activity pictures.....

To the Ada Herald for our advertising pages.....

To our many advertisers.....

To the contributions of the various school organizations.....

To the Commercial Lithograph of Lima for our picture pages.....

We express our profound thank you!
